For the consideration aforesaid, the medical student on completion of his medical course and after passing the requisite examination qualifying for the post of Sub Asst: Surgeon, hereby undertakes and agrees to serve the Government if called upon to do so, for a period of ten years on such terms as may be fixed by the Government.

6. But in case the medical student fails to prosecute his studies with due diligence or is dismissed from the aforesaid medical institution for misconduct or other causes, or fails to attend and completely go through the full course prescribed without sufficient cause (the Government being the sole judge of what is sufficient cause), or upon the completion of the course fails to enter the service of Government on such terms as may be fixed by Government, or having so entered fails to continue in the service during the period of ten years prescribed as above, or is within such period dismissed from service on account of objectionable conduct, the medical student shall refund to Government the whole of the amount so received by the medical student as stipend, scholarship from the Government on account of the school fees, books and instruments and travelling expenses, if any, of the medical student.

7. If any of the contingencies referred to in clause 6 above, shall happen and the medical student shall on that account become liable to refund the amounts received by him and the other expenses incurred by Government on his account, the sureties above-named bind themselves and each one of them jointly and severally and each of one of their heirs, executors, administrators and representatives to pay to the Government such amounts due as aforesaid not exceeding rupees in aggregate.

4 8. If the medical student or the sureties or any of them shall make default in the payment of the said sum as referred to above, such sums shall be recoverable from him/them or each one of them personally and from his/their movable and immovable properties, or at the option of the Government as a revenue demand in accordance with the law for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue due to the Government.

In witness whereof the medical student and the sureties above-named do hereby set their hands and seal the day and year first above written. set-
